

Population not immune to disease

Population currently in incubation

Number of infections actively circulating

Population no longer infectious due to isolation or immunity

